

The Evening Standard

William Glasemann, Publisher
An Independent Newspaper
(ESTABLISHED 1870.)

This paper will always fight for progress and reform, it will not knowingly tolerate injustice or corruption, and will always fight demagogues of all parties, it will oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, it will never lack sympathy with the poor, it will always remain devoted to the public welfare and will never be satisfied with merely printing news, it will always be drastically independent and will never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICAN TICKET

THEODORE ROOSEVELT
of New York
For Vice-President
HIRAM JOHNSON of California

This paper can be found on sale at Los Angeles at Kemp's News Agency. Seven different stands.

SCREAMING AND SCREECHING.

The Herald-Republican, the prostituted servant of mammon, informs the delegates to the Provo convention that they were chosen by the people and, as Taft men, are in duty-bound to send an instructed delegation to Chicago.

Will the organ of the "bunch" inform us as to when and where the delegates were elected by the voters of Utah? Primaries were held—mass primaries—at which the total attendance in the state of Utah could not have been much over 1,000. The great majority of those present were officeholders and men who train with the officeholders, and they no more represent popular sentiment in Utah than Lorimer stands for public opinion in the state of Illinois.

We do not believe the people of Utah are being fooled by the campaign carried on by the official mouth-piece of the federal officeholders.

By the way, why these desperate tactics and this shrieking "Vote for Taft," when Taft has the nomination won? We have been daily reading long articles in the Taft papers going to prove that Roosevelt will have less than 100 votes at Chicago, and Taft will be nominated on the first ballot by almost unanimous vote. Now, if that be true, why this hysteria so noticeable in all the Taft papers, but particularly so in the Herald-Republican? Is the Salt Lake paper so base and low in its campaigning as to deliberately set about to deceive its readers and, instead of being a newspaper, is it nothing but an organ?

Up to yesterday Roosevelt had 327 instructed delegates, to 311 instructed for Taft, of which 168 are contested, leaving Taft only 143 uncontested delegates.

That in itself is proof of the deception being practiced by the Taft organs, and accounts for the desperate game being played by the federal officeholders.

SELF PRAISE IN SUTHERLAND ORGAN.

This paragraph is from the Sutherland organ in Salt Lake City:

Of all the legislation that has been proposed during the present session of congress, the press of the country, irrespective of political affiliations, has agreed that the employers' liability and workmen's compensation bill is perhaps the most meritorious in its recognition of the rights of the wage-earner and the method it furnishes for securing to him those rights without expensive litigation.

That is a wilful misrepresentation, an outrageous lie. Only last week one of the strongest men in public life made a speech in the United States senate condemning the measure as the worst ever introduced in congress.

The Sutherland paper further says:

The measure was drawn by a commission of which Senator Sutherland of this state was chairman, and it is largely the result of his efforts. President Taft was deeply interested in it also, and it was through his insistence that congress provided for the commission and enabled the work to be done.

Sutherland is open to a severe reprimand from the railroad employees of the country for attempting to perpetrate a fraud and Taft is equally culpable for being a party to the deception.

The railroad men should write Sutherland some sharp letters, not in the hope of swaying him from his purpose, but to give him to understand that they know he is a tool of the big corporations and the creature of the large railroads, and that his tactics of serving his masters, under the guise of aiding injured workmen, have deceived no one.

SWATTING THE POLITICAL FLY

The North American, Philadelphia

KNOX IS REBUKED.

Secretary of State Knox made a number of speeches in California during the primary contest, in which he denounced Roosevelt and praised Taft. His efforts were centered in Los Angeles and yesterday the people of that city and county made reply which, in substance, was that they had no confidence in Secretary Knox and less in President Taft.

Knox was heralded in California as an orator with logic irrefutable and magnetism irresistible. The Taft papers almost deified him, pointing to the cabinet emissary as the man who had confounded and confused the opponents of the administration.

The election returns indicate that the bombast and sophistries of the Taft speakers have failed to deceive the people and that men like Knox are thoroughly discredited.

Knox is out of the old school of politics in Pennsylvania in which the most unscrupulous political tricksters gained the highest honors, but the day of the "bosses" has passed and with them must go much that is mean and vulgar in public life.

CALIFORNIA FOR ROOSEVELT

One more state has held a popular primary and, as a consequence, one more state has been added to the Roosevelt ranks.

California takes its place with Kansas, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maine, Minnesota, Washington, Oregon, West Virginia and Maryland.

Theodore Roosevelt defeats Taft by over 60,000, even San Francisco, the city favored by Taft in the Panama exposition fight, casting a larger vote for the former President than for Taft.

Los Angeles, a city of Eastern people and recognized as extremely conservative, rejected Taft by more than a two-to-one vote.

In the city of Vallejo, where many workmen make their homes, Taft received only 267 out of a total of 1518 Republican votes, being third in the race.

What a miserable showing Taft, as a presidential candidate, is making? So far he has failed to obtain more than a fifth of the delegates where popular primaries have been held, and, excluding New York state, the primaries of which were manipulated and reduced to a form of highway robbery, he has obtained less than 40 delegates through popular vote.

It is now certain that North Carolina will instruct for Roosevelt in the convention in Raleigh, to be held today. Minnesota's 24 delegates were conceded to Roosevelt yesterday, with the state convention standing 876 for Roosevelt, 75 for Taft, and 164 for La Follette. Maryland yesterday instructed its 16 delegates for Roosevelt. Now, if Ohio votes for Roosevelt, the end of the struggle will be in sight.

No more sore arms for Nap pitchers. Instead, they'll be trip hammers, high gear and perfectly lubricated. No more gray hairs for managers—and let it further be stated—no more sore arm excuses for losing or lazy pitchers.

Doc White mused along one of St. Louis' canyons of commerce and spied an exhibit in an electrical supply store. It looked like a hair curler, first, but not for long. He quickly identified it as a charleyhorse cream-tory. So right out of his own pocket he hoisted $20 of good northern money and toted it to the hotel.

Veau Gregg was the first Nap he saw and he got a strange hold on him with one arm while he gripped the reduction works with the other. He hauled the helpless athlete to his room and started to work on that great left arm.

He attached the dangling wire to an electric socket and a noise like a merciless dentist drilling a tooth issued forth. Then he slapped the business end of old Charley's cemetery to the $10,000 left shoulder.

In about a moment perspiration burst forth as if a blast had opened a subterranean river. Gregg was hopping with delight. A moment more and old Charleyhorse jumped from the shoulder to the floor, galloped around a bit, and in a dying contortion leaped through the skylight 11 stories down.

Bill Blackwood had a sore foot and the elixir thing was slapped onto it. No more sore foot.

"I believe this would even do Ty Cobb's head good," declared the exuberant doc.

"It's the finest thing of the kind I ever saw. It really does the business," Davis says.

Doc White has now placed himself in the same category of discoverers in science with Edison, the hookworm detective, Pasteur, and the man who found vaccination efficacious for the cigaret habit.

DRESS WITH GATHERED OVER-SKIRT.

This dress has several materials, the first being a foundation waist having chemise and cuffs of heavy yellow lace. Over this is a dress of changeable silk in black and gold. The draping over the shoulder and outer sleeve is of black chiffon voile, and the gathered redingote effect is also of the voile, held in place at the lower edge by cords of the silk. A girdle of black satin is arranged as shown with an edging of dull gilt buttons.
